

Ch 2 and 3 Test Review 2014

Questions	Answers
Which native groups lived in large earthen mounds?
Which native groups lived in the deserts of what is now southern Mexico.
Who was the first Spaniard to set foot in what is now the United States.
Which native group paid a ransom for their leader, but Pizarro killed the emperor anyway?
Who worked in gold and silver mines.
The land bridge that once connected Siberia and Alaska is now
Some 8,000 years ago, gatherers in Mexico began
In the 1400s, who had the world's largest empire?
When did Europeans first make contact with Native Americans?
Who among the Iroquois chose the clan's tribal chief?
Who set up a center for exploration in the 1400s?
Who passed the southern tip of Africa in 1498?
Which of the following do most scientists believe played the greatest role in helping the first humans
By 1498, which Portuguese explorer had passed the southern tip of Africa?
Which early American civilization is the oldest?
According to the land bridge theory, people may have crossed into North America from Siberia because
Which of these explorers may have reached America before Columbus did?
When Columbus reached Cuba, he thought it was
How many total expeditions did Columbus lead?
Which explorer discovered a strait that bears his name?
The Columbian Exchange was a transfer of people, goods, and ideas between
What happened when Moctezuma offered Cortés gold to get him to leave?
When the Incas paid Pizarro a ransom for their leader, Pizarro
Who gave Florida its name?

Coronado explored much of New Mexico, Arizona, and Texas while
What did John Cabot and Henry Hudson have in common?
French traded with Native Americans for
What does the term "coureurs de bois" mean in English?
Who named the Mississippi Valley "Louisiana?"
What caused the greatest number of Native American fatalities?
The first European to see the Pacific Ocean was a lake in Vermont is named after him; sailed the St Lawrence to the Great Lakes
Who found the Pacific Ocean
Who traveled the St. Lawrence River
Who explored Hudson Bay & the Hudson River
Who searched for a Northwest Passage, explored Narragansett Bay (a bridge is named after him)
First Englishman to sail around the world; defeated the Spanish Armada
Who commanded first globe circling voyage
Who traveled the entire Mississippi River all the way to the mouth; claimed all for France
Who started a school of navigation in Portugal
Who traveled throughout India and China; Columbus based many of his assumptions on his book about China
Who was first European to reach North American mainland
Who was first to find a direct sea route to Asia by going around Africa
Who sailed to the West Indies and South America, the "Americas" were named after him.
Who defeated the Aztecs in Mexico
Who explored Florida, looking for the fountain of youth
Which Spanish explorer found the Mississippi River?
Sailing for England, John Cabot explored the region around
Henry Hudson vanished in 1611 when
In addition, you will be provided with two maps and three charts and you have to answer questions based upon the maps and charts & a short answer

